

Saying Goodbye (It's alright) – Mai 2006

1. When you told me (that) you would quit
And try to find your own way
With a shock I suddenly felt what I'd missed
'cause you never opened up the door

2. There's one thing so precious and so clear
Though it may take some courage to face it
I alone know how and where to go my way
What is wrong or right is mine to decide

It is mine to decide
It's alright, alright

3. In looking back I realise:
A one time loss is a chance to grow
And though you dissapointed me so much
We shared a part of the road so it was not
In vain....

4. You and I don't know the reason why we met
Was it fate?
Or trial and error
Still I believe it was right...

It's alright, alright...
... Goodbye my friend
